All rooms are private. Bedding and towels are provided. No private bathrooms. If you have any special requests regarding accommodation (mobility challenges or proximity to washrooms) let us know. We cannot guarantee but will do our best to accommodate you.

Please come prepared for the weather with warm clothing. While the rooms are heated, it is a camp with separate buildings for lodging, meeting and meals.

The kitchen is limited to accommodating the following dietary restrictions. Please check all that apply and note if they are preferences or allergies. This must be done at time of registration.

If you have a severe allergy, please let us know. You will need to accommodate all other dietary restrictions yourself by supplementing the meals provided with your own food; fridges and microwaves are available for your use.
