Welcome!

We want you to feel welcome at St. Philip. All are encouraged to come forward to receive the bread and wine. If you prefer to receive a blessing, please keep your head and hands down. If you are more comfortable not drinking from the cup, you may keep your head down and let it pass or after receiving the bread return to your pew. You may receive a gluten free wafer if you tell the person distributing the bread. Prayer Ministers are available during Communion at the 9:00 am service, at the side of the altar.

Please join us for coffee after the 9am service. Thank you to our coffee hosts this morning, Ceal and Ged McLean.

JOIN THE ALTAR GUILD

Each week, usually on Saturday morning, two members of the altar guild meet to arrange the flowers and prepare the vessels and linen for Sunday. The group as a whole decorates the church for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter celebrations. Our members are faithful, but few in number and we would love to have some new members. If you are interested, our next meeting will be Tuesday March 3rd 9:30 am at the Church. We would welcome anyone wishing to attend and find out more about Altar Guild and what it does. If you are unable to attend please contact the Church office to be put in touch with a member with whom you can discuss possible involvement.

Into the Ground of Being - The Ongoing Quest

A silent retreat with The Rev. Ward Bauman || Wednesday June 10 - Saturday June 13 || The Bethlehem Retreat Centre, Nanaimo

Ward Bauman is returning to Vancouver Island for the first time since his wonderful retreat with The Contemplative Society on Meister Eckhart in 2012. During our time together we will explore ancient Christian texts and practice their methods for coming to know the Christ within. The only pre requisite is prior experience in contemplative prayer and/or meditation. Visit www.contemplative.org for more information and to register.

"Our words say so much about who we are"

by Craig Kielburger

Recently, I was writing about the 10th anniversary of the earthquake in Haiti. I struggled to describe the devastating impact on infrastructure and was more than a little discomfited to realize that the first word to pop into my head was "crippled."

Words such as lame, retarded, schizophrenic and blind have long done double-duty as negative slurs. This is ableist language that makes some people feel inferior. Replacing that cruel lexicon with any of the available synonyms isn't "political correctness," it's tearing down a barrier that prevents people from feeling safe and welcome.

UVic's Cinecenta will be screening Terrence Malick's new film "A Hidden Life" on Sunday 22 March 3:00 & 6:15 p.m. & Monday 23 March 7:00 p.m. This movie tells the true story of the life of Franz Jägerstätter the devout Roman Catholic Austrian conscientious objector who refused to go to war to fight for the Nazis (spoiler alert: it does not end happily!). This is Terrence Malick's most accessible movie and a profound meditation on faith, integrity and the power of human conscience. Christopher will be at the church Sunday 29 March at 7:00 p.m., if anyone would like to come by for an informal discussion about the film.

from film critic Brett McCracken: Against all odds, the once-reclusive filmmaker Terrence Malick became remarkably prolific in the last decade, such that one recent article declared the 2010s "the decade of Terrence Malick." Of the five narrative films the Christian filmmaker released in this decade, the first (2011's The Tree of Life) and the last (this year's A Hidden Life) are the best. These two films are arguably two of the best films about faith ever made. The true story of a Christian who understood the cost of discipleship in World War II—and was martyred because of it—A Hidden Life is not an easy film. But it is remarkably rewarding. It's a film every Christian should see—one of the most honest, harrowing, and beautiful explorations of faith I've ever seen. www.thegospelcoalition.org/article/the-best-movies-of-2019/

Stairwell Gallery

There is a new display up in the Stairwell this morning. The pictures will be up for the month of March. The last Sunday of the month (29th) is the date on the church calendar when we will observe Annunciation Day this year. While the thirty-five images reproduced, span more than one thousand years and every conceivable medium, all are meant to convey the same story, of the Angel Gabriel visiting Mary – with the news that "she has found favor with God" – and will bear a child – who will be the "Son of the Most High God."

Readings for Next Week

Sunday 8 March—Romans 4:1-5, 13-17 and John 3:1-17.

Today is the first Sunday in Lent. No flowers decorate the Sanctuary during the season of Lent and the somber tone is reflected in our worship as we substitute the 'Trisagion' for the 'Gloria' and omit 'Alleluia' response at the end of the Gospel reading.

Tenebrae Liturgy for Lent: During our 9:00 services throughout Lent we observe an ancient ritual with candles based on the service of Tenebrae. This monastic service from as early as the 12th century was held in the last three days of Holy Week at the end of Lent. During the service a series of candles were gradually extinguished, eventually leaving the chapel in complete darkness.

Tenebrae reminds us that, at Jesus' death, "darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon." This ritual encourages us to search our hearts and consider ways we might be diminishing the light of Christ in our lives and in the world.

Today we begin with seven candles lit.

Reader 1: Jesus is the light of the world. His light shines in us, showing God's love to the world.

Reader 2: But sometimes we do not trust Jesus. When we do not trust Jesus it is harder for his light to shine.

(1st candle is extinguished.)

Children: God, may we see your one true Light

All: and know your love that shines so bright.

All sing: *Stay with me, Remain here with me;
Watch and pray, Watch and pray.

Thank you to our readers this morning, Sophia and Talia Schlag.

Judith Armstrong is hoping to head back to Haiti on March 21st. Packing day for supplies is March 14th at St. Peter's church. If you are interested in helping sort and pack supplies, please let Judith know. Some of the needed supplies so far include: fitted cloth diapers (largest child's size); sheets; batteries (AA, AAA), toothpaste; children's and adult medications are always and ongoing need. There may well be other requests coming in from Hope Home, so if you are interested in providing other items please let Judith know. With thanks.
